Event: Life skills-health and hygiene-Blood Donation Camp.

Resource Person: Dr. Prasanna Chavan (Academic Coordinator at MCCCS)

Date: 15/08/2019

Time: 9:00 am

Venue: Seminar Hall

Introduction: Blood donation is a vital part of worldwide healthcare. It relates to blood transfusion as a life-sustaining and life-saving procedure as well as a form of therapeutic phlebotomy as a primary medical intervention. Over one hundred million units of blood are donated each year throughout the world..

Objective of the Event:

- To collect blood units but also to make students aware about blood and its benefits.
- It was an effort to motivate students to come forward and donate for this noble cause.
- First time donors need to be encouraged so that once the initial hesitation/ fear goes away, the donor will look forward to such camps in near future too.
- To help anyone, in case of any requirement for blood

The Health and hygiene-Blood Donation Camp was conducted by MCCCS college. This program was conducted 15th August 2019. Under the guidance of Dr. S L Shirgave, Principal of MCCCS, coordinated the event successfully.

Blood donation can save lives of innumerable persons. Donation of blood is very critical and crucial for saving the lives of many patients and those who have met with accidents. It is such a great service or contribution to the society and people living in it.

Total Number of Participants: 20

Outcomes: At the camp our MCCCS volunteers brought awareness to them about shortage of blood and why we must donate blood every year, to help the persons requiring blood.

Organizing Committee: IQAC Committee.

Academic Year 2017-18

Event: Fire Drill Activity

Resource Person: Ravi Subramanyam

Date: 25/11/2017

Time: 11:00 am

Venue: Modern College campus

Introduction: A fire drill is a simulation of a real life emergency event and should be treated as such, for the safety of all concerned. Fire drills are critical for ensuring the safety of the staff, students and residents that enter your college building or property. Practicing fire drills will help ensure individuals have the knowledge to safely escape a fire without injuring themselves or others.

Objective of the Event:

- To Involvement of teaching and non-teaching staff during emergencies Preparedness and alertness
- To understand The features of the fire emergency systems installed in the building.
- To understand what they need to do if there is a fire

The event "Fire Drill" was conducted by MCCCCS College. This program was conducted on the 25th November 2017 under the guidance of Asst. Prof. Rohit Waghmare, Assistant Professor at MCCCCS, coordinated the event successfully.

Fire drill started at 11 am when all Teaching and Non-teaching staff arrived at the college campus. Classroom faculty and staff should be familiar with the easiest exit to be used in the fire drill and the alternative exits available. Faculty and staff should close (not lock) doors and windows and take responsibility for checking facilities for complete evacuation. A briefing was done on Fire and Emergency response during Fire Emergency. The fire-Fighting team used the right Extinguisher for the Extinguishing purpose(DCP, Water). The workforce remained calm, while the mock drill was in progress, and showed keen interest to get knowledge about the emergency.

Total Number of Participants: 06

Outcomes: Classroom faculty and staff should be familiar with the easiest exit to be used in the fire drill and the alternative exits available. All were very happy to attend the program & also suggested many more such activities for safety purposes.
